The journal could not function without them. Thank you to Deborah J. House for joining us as a new associate editor. Thank you as well to book review editor Catherine P. Waters, photo editor Peter LaTourrette, assistant editor Daniel D. Gibson, and webmaster/designer/typographer Timothy W. Brittain for fulfilling their key roles in producing Western Birds. This year, we should all acknowledge the phenomenal contribution of Ginger Johnson, who had to step down this year as graphics manager after serving Western Birds through its entire 53-year history. Ginger's decades of service to WFO were recognized through her being given the Alan M. Craig Award in 2010. Please take a moment to appreciate Ginger's work by visiting <https://westernfieldornithologists.org/awards/alan-m-craig-award/>.
